Aboriginal North America and Europe: Strengthening Connections An interdisciplinary international conference

Przydatne informacje Miasto: Poznań

Data rozpoczęcia: 11-11-2016

Zgłoszenia do: 15-04-2016

The aim of the conference is to bring together aboriginal and non-aboriginal North American and European scholars, artists and activists and provide a venue for exchanging views, ideas and scholarship findings related to the present, the past and the future of aboriginal peoples of North America. We invite scholars representing multiple disciplines (history, sociology, ethnology, anthropology, culture studies, literary studies, law, politology, linguistics and others) to share their research results and pedagogies; and aboriginal activists and artists to share their experiences, knowledge and art.

The language of the conference is English. We invite proposals for 20-minute papers, 60- minute interactive workshops, round-table discussions, poetry and prose readings.

Please email your c. 250-word-long proposal and a brief CV to the conference secretaries Katarzyna Burzyńska or Kornelia Boczkowska at: strengtheningconnections Poznan@gmail.com [1]

Deadline for proposals is April 15th 2016. Submissions will be acknowledged by email.

Acceptance information will be emailed to participants by May 15th 2016.
